

Tina Sparkle

LADYBUGS AND FIRECRACKERS

PRESS:

"Led by Marsha Satterfield, this Peoria, Ill., quartet comes in more on the alternative/indie side of the rock spectrum, frequently compared to PJ Harvey and The Pretenders. Satterfield's lyrics openly address her lesbian lovers, ex-lovers and crushes, while the band's music aptly expresses the angst and regret detailed in her songs about broken hearts, bad timing and missed opportunities. The scorching distortion-fest, "Suck the Panic," and the bluesy, harmonic-blasting "Kiss and Tell" are harder rocking standouts, while the more melodic opener "Starting the Year" and string-filled ballad "Noun Verb Noun" are more radio-friendly picks. Solid from beginning to end. Go Peoria." - Margaret Coble of Curve Magazine

"The brother and sister duo of Marsha and Atomic Satterfield have the musical background to make their new project, Tina Sparkle, worth taking a chance on. Serving time in The Forecast (Victory Records), Scouts Honor (No Idea Records), and The Amazing Kill-o-watts, their new project sounds like a less Jawbreaker influenced version of Lemuria.

"All Around Champion Screw-Up is a very revealing and personal record that at first feels like one of those coffee-shop-girl-with-a-guitar-sings-her-heart-out types of albums that get looked over all the time, but later reveals itself to be something a little more. Because of that immediate assumption, the power of this record really sneaks up on you. Marsha Satterfield has put together twelve very emotional songs and invited the listener into her own life without coming off as corny or whiny or anything less than honest. Highlights on this record include 'Starting the Year,' 'How the West Was Won,' and the uncharacteristically aggressive 'Suck the Panic.'" - Max Gambill/Punkbands.com

Chris Anderson: Bass, Vocals - Marsha "Tina" Satterfield: Lead Vocals, Guitar - Atomic Satterfield: Drums, Vocals

Marsha Satterfield joined her older brother's rock band at age fourteen. Thirteen years later, the brother/sister combination is still rocking hard. They served time in Victory Records' The Forecast, No Idea Records' Scouts Honor, and The Amazing Kill-o-watts among other musical groups. Their current musical focus is the hard-rocking Tina Sparkle, which features Marsha on lead guitar and vocals and Atomic on drums and backing vocals. They are joined by seasoned musician Chris Anderson on bass and backing vocals.

Ladybugs And Firecrackers is the loud-rocking 7" vinyl follow-up to 2007's album All Around Champion Screw Up. Tina Sparkle raises the bar with three new songs that rock harder and illustrate to listeners that there is much more to look forward to from this great Midwestern act.

Tina Sparkle have been touring the states for the last year in support of All Around Champion Screw-Up. They have shared the stage with national acts such as The Reputation, The Forecast, Only Children, Scouts Honor, Ellaina Mendel, Pash, Lewis and Clarke, and 1090 Club.
